

Process Engineer

We currently have a vacancy within our Production Engineering Department for a Process Engineer.

The successful candidate will be responsible for the following activities:

- Turning concepts into fully specified designs with comprehensive costs
- The Design & specification of materials handling equipment and methods
- Responsibility for new processes and process changes
- The support of existing production processes & people by driving continuous improvement effort
- The writing of precise work instructions and SOPs
- Playing a key role in a lean transition through the use of a range of established lean tools

To apply for the position of Process Engineer you will:

- Have extensive experience in manufacturing/process engineering
- Hold a minimum of HNC in mechanical or production engineering
- Are an experienced lean practitioner
- Have experience of FMEA/APQP
- Have Experience in problem solving by using formal techniques
- Are a competent trainer and facilitator
- Are able to work within all levels of the business in the ongoing pursuit of excellence and world class standards
- Diligent with project management, supporting paperwork and documentation
- Are prepared to accept full responsibility for new processes and process changes
- Have experience of carrying out thorough and in depth risk assessments

If you require a full job description or more information please contact the HR & Training Department.

Applicants should apply in writing or by email to the Human Resources & Training Department by Friday 19 July 2019.

Human Resources & Training Department
July 2019