

VACANCY

Quality Technician

We are looking for a person with an engineering background to work in our Quality Department. The role will include, covering customer acceptance line inspection for both Staffa and Pumps, calibration of gauges and registry testing activities. Candidate must be able to read engineering drawings, use measurement equipment, be computer literate and ideally, have knowledge of Quality Systems. Full Training will be provided.

The ideal Quality Technician will possess the following skills and qualities:

- Ideally have a BTEC in Engineering or apprenticeship achieving an NVQ 2 or above, with knowledge of quality systems.
- Have experience of working in a production environment.
- Be able to read and understand engineering drawings with a good understanding of drawing tolerances
- Experience of a quality role within a manufacturing or quality background would be beneficial.
- Consistency in achieving set tasks and ability to multi task.
- Providing excellent customer service.
- Ability to use a variety of measuring equipment accurately.
- Attention to detail.
- Adapting to change, willingness to learn.
- Be well-organized and methodical.
- Flexibility to work shift if required

Please apply by submitting a letter of application and CV. All applications should be submitted to the HR Department.

Human Resources & Training Department
January 2018